When you choose Cinescreen-AV to install your new TV or home entertainment system you'll be joining hundreds of other satisfied local customers who have experienced our superb service since 2003.

We're proud to set ourselves apart from the very basic service offered by most in-store installation teams and general tradesmen. We specialise in providing a service that focuses on your individual requirements. Your home is precious to you and we know you'll want your new home entertainment system to blend in seamlessly, with stunning results.

Our service starts with a free site survey that's designed to help you make the right choices. In fact, you can benefit from our expertise even before buying your equipment, with free, friendly, independent advice. We specialise in providing hidden-cables solutions for all types of room and make-good to a decorator's finish for the perfect result. We make the whole process easy and stress-free for you; showing you how to use your new equipment and offering superb after-sales service to help you enjoy it to the full.

When you choose Cinescreen-AV you get more than just great service. You get unrivalled experience and expertise; honed over seven years of providing quality products and services to private clients, commercial customers, retailers and property developers.

So if you want a professional service that offers excellent value for money and is designed around what you want to achieve, you can rely on Cinescreen-AV to deliver. You can see examples of our work and read what some of our hundreds of satisfied customers say about us on our website. To arrange your free site survey simply call us now.
